WELCOME FROM THE STEERING COMMITTEE

This Early Learning Coordination Plan (which will be referred to as “the Coordination Plan” for the rest of the document) was brought to life by thousands of people from groups and communities across Washington state. From the beginning, the steering committee has been at the core of it all. Here, some of their voices welcome you to this exciting collaboration.

Early Learning Coordination Plan – Quick Overview

Imagine creating a way to coordinate the Early Learning Coordination Plan where:

- All partners share a strong commitment to equity and creating an anti-racist culture
- There is collective commitment to co-designing with lived experts
- There is a shared language for our work
- There is shared power in accountability, strategy and decision-making processes
- Partners collect, share and use data together to inform our system
- Partners across the system meet frequently to share progress, make course corrections and develop strategy

Moving Forward Together

As a group:

- What do we need to be thinking about?
- What concerns are surfacing?
- What are the strengths?
